At a junior netball tournament, all teams must provide the following basic first aid from your designator first aider. Here are some common situations that may arise, along with the corresponding first aid measures:

Coaches Basic first aid responsibilities

1. Sprains and Strains:
 - First Aid: Apply the R.I.C.E. method (Rest, Ice, Compression, Elevation) to reduce swelling and alleviate pain. Provide support with bandages or wraps.
2. Minor Cuts and Abrasions:
 - First Aid: Clean the wound with mild soap and water. Apply an antiseptic ointment and cover the wound with a sterile dressing or bandage.
3. Bruises:
 - First Aid: Apply a cold compress to the bruised area to reduce swelling and ease pain. If necessary, provide pain relief.
4. Blisters:
 - First Aid: Clean the blister with mild soap and water. Apply a blister pad or dressing to protect it from further friction.
5. Insect Bites or Stings:
 - First Aid: Remove the stinger (if applicable). Clean the area with mild soap and water, and apply a cold compress. Administer antihistamines for allergic reactions.
6. Dehydration:
 - First Aid: Encourage the individual to drink water or a sports drink. Provide a shaded area for rest and recovery.
7. Heat Exhaustion:
 - First Aid: Move the person to a cool area, have them rest, and provide fluids. Loosen tight clothing and use cool compresses.
8. Nosebleeds:
 - First Aid: Have the individual lean forward slightly and pinch their nostrils together. Apply an ice pack to the bridge of the nose.
9. Muscle Cramps:

- First Aid: Gently stretch and massage the affected muscle. Provide fluids and encourage rest.
- 10. Mild Allergic Reactions:
 - First Aid: Administer antihistamines if available and appropriate for the situation. Monitor for signs of worsening symptoms.

 - First Aid: Lay the person down, elevate their legs, and ensure proper ventilation. Monitor vital signs and seek medical attention if needed.
- 13. Minor Eye Injuries (e.g., Foreign Objects):
 - First Aid: Flush the eye with clean water. Do not rub the eye. If the object is not easily removed, seek professional medical help.
- 14. Shock:
 - First Aid: Help the person lie down, keep them warm, and elevate their legs slightly. Monitor vital signs and seek medical attention if necessary.

Basic first aiders should always prioritize safety, remain calm, and seek professional medical assistance for serious injuries or situations beyond their training and capabilities. Additionally, communication with tournament organizers and emergency response teams is crucial to ensuring a coordinated and effective response.

Emergency First Aid Support responsibilities

If something is more serious, and you suspect any of the following -

Call ambulance immediately! Get someone to notify the desk we have emergency responders close by:-

1. Cardiac events: While rare, cardiac events can occur in any sport. It's important to have access to defibrillator and individuals trained in CPR.
2. Heat-related illnesses: Hot climates, players can still be at risk of heat-related illnesses. Adequate hydration, rest breaks, and awareness of heat-related symptoms are important preventive measures.
3. Asthma attacks: Players with asthma should have their inhalers readily available, and coaches should be aware of any respiratory conditions. Adequate warm-ups and cool-downs can help reduce the risk of asthma-related incidents.
4. Allergic reactions: Some participants may have allergies, and team first aiders should be aware of these conditions to prevent allergic reactions. Emergency medical plans should include provisions for allergic incidents.
5. Inadequate supervision: Proper supervision is essential to prevent accidents and ensure fair play. Adequate adult supervision, particularly in between games from coaching teams is crucial.

6. Equipment safety: Ensure that all netball equipment, including goalposts, nets, and the court surface, is in good condition.
